

CUSTOMER SUCCESS STORY

Halmstadt University

The Sennheiser microphone system offers good protection against any interferences

Challenge

Halmstadt University was looking for microphones with best user experience and sound quality as well as protection against any interference.

Solution

The customer is very happy because the Sennheiser microphones have easy and user-friendly menus everybody understands.

Full Story here >

“We are very satisfied to have Sennheiser microphones on our campus. They have easy and user-friendly menus everybody understands. In comparison to our previous mics the user experience with the Sennheiser microphones is perfect. The quality of the sound is outstanding and the audio system offers really good protection against any interference.”

Jonas Aberg, Technician, Halmstad University

FACTSHEET

Products installed	SpeechLine Digital Wireless
Country	Sweden
Region	EMEA
Industry	University
Profile	Halmstad University, established in 1983, is a public higher education institution based in Halmstad, Sweden. Today, the University has around 10.600 students and offers around 50 programmes and over 130 courses within several subject fields.

SENNHEISER